

Getting Lost In Your Interpretations... Polytychs by Suzy Andron

When working on a piece, I feel exhilarated. Expectant. Inspired. I combine canvases of different shapes and study their composition. I introduce various materials to the canvases to produce an array of textures and effects. Occasionally, I wonder what I'm going to do with this mess! I allow the piece to rest and wait until it "tells me" what to do next. All of my pieces are the best they can be at the time of completion. Nothing is signed until it whispers "finished" to me.

I want all my paintings to find good homes; places where they interact with their owners, where they continue to enthrall. When you see my work, I hope you are stunned and intrigued – getting lost in your interpretations.
